SPEEDING TO CHICAGO FOR SPECIAL OPERATION

LOS ANGELES MILLIONAIRE HAS STRANGE AILMENT AND IS GOING EAST FOR OPERATION

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 18.—Alvin Daniels, multimillionaire mining man, yachtsman and golf enthusiast, who for some time has been confined to his home at Coronado, afflicted with a strange malady that affected one of his legs, is speeding toward Chicago for an operation after an attempt to stay the progress of the trouble with medicine proved unsuccessful.

Upon advice of physicians attending the millionaire, the trip was arranged and a special car was chartered, which left over the Santa Fe early last night.

Mr. Daniels is accompanied by his San Diego physician, Mrs. Daniels and several children, also Percival Thompson, brother of Chicago's mayor, and Mrs. Thompson.

According to Santa Fe officials quick time is being made and close connections at terminal points have been arranged.

Daniels is reputed to be worth $20,000,000.

LOGAN COUNTY FARM AGENT COVERS COUNTY ON HORSEBACK

County Farm Agent McNeeters with Thursday and Wednesday of this week in the southwestern part of the county where it is so rough he had to make the trip on horseback.

He rode into Shiloh Wednesday afternoon too late to catch the train for Guthrie and as he had promised to send the horse back to the owner in the country, walked to Meridian where he planned for his Ford to be sent out. He finally got into Guthrie along toward midnight and was off at daylight yesterday morning for Darlington taking three farmers over there to bid on a lot of sheep being sold at public sale.

There will be a number of new teachers in the Guthrie schools next school year. Several of the old ones and the best ones, too, have quit on account of the salary being less than they were offered elsewhere.

Last Saturday, according to Miss Nettie's story, the man was in her room when she returned from work.

He had two trunks, one of them very heavy, with him, she said. "He made me swear that I would keep the trunks for him but not open them," the young woman declared. "He said he was involved in a robbery."

The youth departed, but shortly afterwards another young man, who said he was her friend's roommate, came and demanded the trunks. Miss Nettie said she took the trunks away.
